Jens Peers is appointed CIO Sustainable Equities of Mirova

Jens Peers has been appointed CIO Sustainable Equities of Mirova, the responsible investment division of Natixis Asset Management, where Jens will report directly to Philippe Zaouati, the Deputy CEO of Natixis AM, Head of Mirova.

Mirova's international equity management activities follow a conviction-based fundamental asset management approach on European and global companies involved in sustainable development.

Jens Peers started his career in 1998 as a financial advisor at KBC Bank, Brussels. He subsequently joined KBC Asset Management in 2001 as a financial analyst. In 2003, he moved to Kleinwort Benson Investors, Dublin, as head of portfolio management - environmental strategies on the following thematic areas: water, agribusiness, cleantech (renewable energy, energy efficiency, waste management).

Jens Peers (39) holds a master degree in applied economics from the University of Antwerp, Belgium. He is also a CFA Charterholder and is a certified CEFA (Certified European Financial Analyst of the BVFA-ABAF - Belgian Association of Financial Analysts).

With the appointment of Jens Peers, Mirova underlines its ambitions in equity-thematic management.

Mirova, the Responsible Investment division of Natixis Asset Management, offers a committed management approach, designed to combine value creation for investors with sustainable development.
